

PATIENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

PATIENT RIGHTS

AS A PATIENT AT MIDWEST ORTHOPEDIC SPECIALTY HOSPITAL, YOU HAVE THE RIGHT, CONSISTENT WITH LAWS AND REGULATIONS, TO ...

1. Not be denied the right to appropriate hospital care because of your race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, age, newborn status, handicap, ethnicity, culture, language, physical or mental disability, socio economic status, gender identity or expression or source of payment.
2. Know that the Midwest Orthopedic Specialty Hospital is owned jointly by physicians and Wheaton Franciscan Healthcare. A list of physician owners is available upon request.
3. Have a family member or representative of your choice and your physician promptly notified of your admission to this facility.
4. Participate in the development, implementation, and revision of your plan of care, treatment and services, and the involvement of your family, with your permission.
5. Make informed decisions and provide consent about your care, treatment and services, unless you are unable to do so. Except in emergencies, your consent or the consent of your legally authorized representative shall be obtained before treatment is administered.
6. Receive, from an appropriate person within the facility, a clear explanation of:
 - a. All proposed treatment, care, services, medications, interventions, or procedures;
 - b. Potential benefits, risks, or side effects;
 - c. Any problems related to recovery;
 - d. Any significant alternative treatment, care or services;
 - e. Your condition, any changes in your condition and your prognosis for recovery;
 - f. Outcomes of your care.
7. Refuse any care, treatment, or services and the right to be informed of the possible consequences.
8. Participate in resolving dilemmas about care, treatment, services, or discharge, including withholding resuscitative services and declining or removing lifesustaining treatment.
9. Identify someone to make decisions for you if / when you can not make decisions about your care, treatment, or services, as permitted by law.

10. Designate person(s) who are permitted to visit you during your hospital stay, including, but not limited to, your spouse, domestic partner (including a same sex domestic partner), another family member or a friend. You have the right to receive or refuse a visitor. You will be informed of any clinically necessary or reasonable visitation restrictions that we may need to put in place. We will not restrict, limit, or otherwise deny visitation privileges on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, or disability.
11. Prepare and/or revise advance directives or instructions about your medical treatment, to appoint a decision maker, and to have staff comply with these directives, as permitted by law.
12. Effective communication, including:
 - a. Interpreter and translation services;
 - b. Assistance to meet vision, speech, hearing, language, and cognitive impairment needs;
 - c. Age-appropriate information;
 - d. Visitors, mail, telephone calls, and other forms of communication;
 - e. Restrictions on communication that are evaluated for therapeutic effectiveness and determined with the participation of the patient and family, as appropriate.
13. Receive considerate and respectful care, consistent with sound medical and nursing practice, in a clean, safe, and secure environment.
14. Be free from restraints of any form that are not medically necessary or are used as a means of coercion, discipline, convenience, or retaliation by staff. A restraint can only be used if needed to improve your (the patient's) well-being and less restrictive interventions have been determined to be ineffective.
15. Be treated with consideration and respect in recognition of your individuality and dignity, including reasonable visual and auditory privacy during personal hygiene activities and consultations, examinations, and treatments.
16. Privacy and confidentiality of your health information. As required by law, you also have a right to:
 - a. See and receive a copy of health information about yourself;
 - b. Request to amend your health information;
 - c. Request a list of disclosures of your health information;
 - d. Request limits on how Midwest Orthopedic Specialty Hospital uses and disclosures of health information;
 - e. Ask that Midwest Orthopedic Specialty Hospital send information to you at a different address or in a different way;
 - f. Receive a copy of the Notice of Privacy Practices that includes further explanations of these rights.
17. Be assured of reasonable safety within the hospital, including the right to be free from mental, physical, sexual, and verbal abuse, neglect, mistreatment, exploitation, humiliation, and retaliation.
18. Access or referral to appropriate services such as:
 - a. Self-help groups and economic, legal, disability, or other advocacy organizations.
 - b. Protective services such as guardianship.
 - c. State licensing and certification agencies, and governmental fraud and abuse units.

19. Effective management of your pain.
20. Access to pastoral/spiritual care services.
21. Know the name of the physician or other practitioner primarily responsible for your care and the name and professional status of those responsible for authorizing and performing procedures and treatments.
22. Except in emergencies, participate or refuse to participate in research and/or clinical trials after receiving an explanation of the nature and possible consequences of the research before the research/clinical trial is conducted, without compromising your access to care, treatment, or services.
23. Remain in this facility for care without being transferred to another facility unless you have received an explanation of the need for a transfer, provisions have been made for your continuing care, and the receiving institution has accepted you as a patient.
24. Information about the cost of your care including the right to look at and receive a reasonable explanation of your total bill and detailed charges for services received, regardless of the source of payment. You also have a right to request and receive information about financial assistance available through the hospital.
25. Be informed in writing about hospital policies and procedures for initiation, review, and resolution of patient complaints. You may voice a complaint to caregivers without fear of reprisal if dissatisfied with any aspect of their care. This would include issues related to quality of care, patient safety, coverage decisions, and premature discharge concerns.
